

13 January 1967 – Column title and byline: Glen Haven News and Events by Diann Admire. The Glencrofter Country Store opened its doors on Sunday, 1 January 1967, with a grand opening. Owner of the store, Mr. Jerry Batchelor of Wichita, Kansas, and Glen Haven, and operators of the store, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shaffer, greeted their new customers and friends. Coffee and doughnuts were served, and throw pillows were given to the ladies. Specials on food items were featured throughout the store. The décor of the new store is done like the old time store, which included the cracker barrel, bins of beans, popcorn, penny candy, the old pot belly stove, and an interesting and controversial [sic] chair made from an elk that is really unusual. The new store gives residents of Glen Haven a year round store that will be a convenience, as well as a place to see your friends and neighbors...Mr. and Mrs. Phil Millar returned last Wednesday from a holiday trip to Illinois. In Willisville, Illinois, they visited with Mrs. Millar's 89-year-old young mother, Mrs. Lizzie Ward. Even though the weather was unfavorable, the visit at Glenview, Illinois, with Mrs. Millar's daughter, Mrs. Van Dall, as well as Mr. Van Dall and their two children was wonderful! In Chicago, Illinois, the Millars were guests at the home of her son, Robert Pouilly, Mrs. Pouilly, and Robin...Recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nold were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bauming and Skip of San Diego, California. Mr. and Mrs. Nold were in Loveland and Boulder last Friday...Mr. and Mrs. Tom Connell, Jr., of LaSalle are the proud parents of a son, Thomas Scott, born Thursday evening, 5 January 1967, at Weld County hospital in Greeley. The "littlest Connell" weighed in at 4 pounds 11 ounces, but is doing just fine. Mrs. Tom Connell, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. George Mosier of Greeley are the grandparents...Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wagner were New Year's Day guests of Dr. and Mrs. Lentner in Loveland. The Wagners spent several days in Fort Collins last week visiting with friends...A belated first birthday party was held Saturday, 7 January 1967, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Adams for their son Eric. Eric's birthday was actually 2 January 1967. Guests who gathered for the birthday festivities were Mrs. Orville Thomas and Chad, Mrs. George Havens, Brenda, and Cindy, Mrs. Bub [sic] Thomas, Raymond, and Chuck, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Adams, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lloyd of Loveland. Miss Janice Peterson and Mrs. Gene Admire and Karolyn also attended...Mrs. Harry Dardarian of Loveland visited with former Glen Haven neighbors last week. 7 July 1967 – Column title and byline: Glen Haven Events by Diann Admire. Glen Haven residents were sure to think back this past week to a year ago, when the forest fire on Fox Creek broke out on 5 July 1966. The recent wet weather that this area and much of Colorado has been experiencing this past month has helped, so that the fire rating isn't as high as it might be. However, one cannot forget what a near disaster our picturesque little community almost experienced, and the wheels should continue to move, so that the fire protection in Glen Haven can be improved to better protect the people, their homes, and the beautiful foliage around them...Recent houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Boekel were his niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis of San Bernardino, California. Dinner guests of the Boekels' one evening last week were Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell Wood and children from Kansas City, Missouri. Both are from Wisconsin...Houseguests for the past two weeks at the West Creek home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carroll have been his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll of Genesco, Illinois...Mr. and Mrs. Robert Asher of Sterling were dinner and overnight guests of the Eldred Dershams last Thursday evening. Mr. Asher is retired from the Colorado State Patrol with 20 years of service...Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wells and Susie returned on Friday from a short trip to Des Moines, Iowa, where they visited friends and relatives. Mr. Mark Burton made the trip with the Wells and visited friends in Ames, Iowa...Weekend guests of Mildred Woodard at her Fox Creek cottage were her son and boys, Dr. W. Donald Woodard, Michael, and Mitchell of Denver...Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Bentley of Wheatridge spent several days at their cottage last week...Alice Richardson of Fort Lupton [words missing] this weekend and had as her guest her niece, Susan Koeppen, also from Fort Lupton...Mr. and Mrs. Walt Dunham of Brighton were at their cabin on the weekend, as were Mr. and Mrs. George Wolf and daughter of Greeley, Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Wooding of Fort Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rex and son of Denver, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Johnson of Greeley...Family and friends of Mrs. Barbara Storey honored her with a birthday celebration on Sunday at her North Fork cottage. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wisdom and daughter of Evergreen, Mr. and Mrs. R. McKinley and daughter from Moab, Utah, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Storey and Mr. and Mrs. Don Storey and family of Denver, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wagner of Glen Haven, and Mrs. John Moen of Virginia Dale...Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Barger on Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wyman of Greeley...Mrs. John Moen of Virginia Dale has been a houseguest this past week of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wagner...Glen Haven residents were extremely lucky last week when the fire that completely destroyed the North Fort cottage of Dan Weitzel was confined to only one house and a few trees. Realizing that the community had been fortunate, but the need for a better knowledge of fire fighting and preparedness was needed, residents met for training sessions on Wednesday afternoon and Thursday evening with men from the Colorado state forest service. The meeting on Thursday evening was preceded by a covered dish dinner for residents, family, and forest service personnel from Fort Collins and Estes Park. More training sessions will be scheduled in hopes that Glen Haven will be better prepared for any fires that may happen in the future.

13 October 1967 – Column title and byline: Glen Haven Events by Diann Admire. There is jubilation in Glen Haven this week over the “Fire Belles” successful campaign to raise money for the Glen Haven fire department. Over a thousand dollars has been raised, and all of Glen Haven residents want to thank the wonderful people in Estes Park and surrounding communities for their generous contributions, and for making the campaign and dance such a tremendous success...Visitors to the shops in Glen Haven from various parts of the United States have also shown an interest, and have given generously. A couple from Dallas, Texas, read the article in last week’s Estes Park Trail, and drove to Glen Haven to contribute a first aid kit and generous sum of money. People are wonderful no matter what part of the country they come from...Weekenders who journeyed up from the valley for the big dance Saturday evening at the Red Stallion were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rex of Denver, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Craven and Wayne of LaSalle, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bartels, Mr. and Mrs. Lefty Bartels, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Lee, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whittaker, all of Greeley...Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eastwood have been visiting at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Adams and Eric. They also visited with friends in Estes Park, and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lloyd of Loveland, en route to Arizona, after spending the summer at Mount McKinley National Park [Denali National Park], Alaska...Dora Connell was recently released from Weld County hospital in Greeley, and is at home recuperating from her recent stroke...Otto Hedstrom is coming along fine at his North Fork home, but would enjoy hearing from his friends. Otto suffered a stroke this summer, and recently underwent an operation...Weekend activity in Glen Haven has been heavy due to the beautiful fall warm weather. The county roadmen are laying culverts under the road, cutting weeds along the road, and trying to take full advantage of the nice weather.

29 December 1967 – Column title and byline: Glen Haven Events by Diann Admire. A new year is almost here, which means that it’s time to look back at the happenings of 1967, a year that has passed so quickly...It was on Sunday, 1 January 1967, that Mr. Jerry Batchelor of Wichita, Kansas, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shaffer held the grand opening of the Glencrofter Country Store...In May 1967, after a letter to and a meeting between Governor Love and Dottie Ferguson, state officials removed gas tanks from the ground. It was a large group that gathered that cold day in May 1967 to see if there was leaking gas coming from these underground storage tanks. Any visitor to Glen Haven on this day would surely have thought a convention was in progress...June 1967 brought the summer residents from all over the United States to their Glen Haven cottages. The shops welcomed tourists and friends for another season, and Cheley Camp began another year of summer activities for girls and boys from all parts of the country. Another Glencrofter enterprise, the Horseshoe Café, opened its doors for business during the month of June 1967...The Glen Haven Association held its annual meeting on Saturday, 29 July 1967. Members were brought up to date on the activities of the association, and Robert Turner of Greeley, Clarence Nold of Glen Haven, and Dudley Bentley of Wheatridge were elected to the board...The Glen Haven Story, written by our well-known neighbor and long-time resident Dr. Joseph G. Knapp, was published this past summer. The book is a welcome addition to the store of historical literature in the Estes Park region. Its 80 pages brought back many memories to pioneer residents of Glen Haven, and is in truth “a microcosm of the unfolding west”...The summer months were filled with an unusual amount of rainfall. This caused complaints from the hikers, horseback riders, and shop keepers, but the hillsides were truly a rainbow of colors...Luck was once again with the residents of Glen Haven, that September 1967 evening, when fire completely destroyed the Dan Weitzel cabin on North Fork. The realization that the community had been fortunate, but the need for a better knowledge of fire fighting and preparedness, convinced year round residents to join together to form a more effective and better equipped fire department...The newly organized "Fire Belles" raised over a thousand dollars through "fire hose" donations and a benefit dance held on 7 October 1967 at the Red Stallion. To this date, over $1400 has been raised, 400 feet of fire hose has been purchased, and residents are just beginning to make the Glen Haven fire department the organization it should be...1967 has brought changes to our picturesque community. The post office was enlarged and the Glen Haven Lodge became the Inn of Glen Haven. We've said goodbye to friends and pioneer residents through moves and through death, but hellos to many, who have decided to make Glen Haven their home, either on a year round or weekend basis. Fellowship and good times have taken place through a common cause. Thus the year-end inventory has been taken, and 1968 can be the best year yet. Glen Haven and its residents can order the new year now...Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas and family of Henderson, Nevada, spent Christmas and this past week at their cottage on North Fork...Mr. and Mrs. Al Boekel spent Christmas with family in Wilber, Nebraska, and Lincoln, Nebraska.
